Ohio History Fund – Support History in Your Community

TAX TIME “TO-DO”: How the Tax “Check-Off” Works

The Ohio History Connection’s History Fund grant program is one of the few grant programs in the state just for history, pre-history, and historic preservation projects—and it needs your help to grow. If you receive a refund on your Ohio income taxes, consider donating a portion of it to the “Ohio History Fund” tax “check-off,” line 26f on your state tax return.

Your donation with those from your friends, relatives, and thousands of other history lovers makes possible grants for local history projects in places big and small throughout Ohio. Since the Ohio History Fund started in 2013, it has made 73 grants in 37 counties for a total of $6694,569. There’s a huge need for the History Fund, however. It has received 388 grant applications from 66 counties, totaling more than $4.7 million in requests! For a list of grant recipients, visit: www.ohiohistory.org/preserve/local-history-services/history-fund/recipients

Not receiving a tax refund? You can still help: buy an Ohio History mastodon license plate. Twenty dollars from the sale of each set of plates benefits the History Fund grant program. To learn more, visit: www.bmv.ohio.gov/vr-sp-organization.aspx

You can also make a donation directly to the Ohio History Connection for the History Fund, visit www.ohiohistory.org and click on “Give.” Be sure to designate your gift “for Ohio History Fund.”

The more you give to the Ohio History Fund, to more grants it can make to organizations that preserve history in our state. Questions about the History Fund? Visit www.ohiohistory.org/historyfund or call Andy Verhoff in the Ohio History Connection’s Local History Service department at 614-297-2341 or email averhoff@ohiohistory.org. Thanks!

John Heitmann of the University of Dayton, received the Distinguished Historian Award in recognition of his outstanding contributions to history.

John Knight, recent graduate of The Ohio State University, received the Dissertation Award for his study, “Our Nation’s Future? Chinese Imaginations of the Soviet Union, 1917-1956”

Robin Judd of The Ohio State University, received the Distinguished Teaching Award in recognition of excellence in the teaching of history

The Academy presented one Publication Award. This award is presented annually to a member of the Academy for the outstanding historical publication of the preceding year. This award was presented to Joan Cashin, The Ohio State University, for her book, War Stuff: The Struggle for Human and Environmental Resources in the American Civil War.

Kevin Kern presented a plaque to Steven Conn in recognition of his service to the Academy as President in 2018-2019.
History of the Award:
The Junior Faculty Research Grant originated with Jonathan Winkler, Wright State University, who proposed the committee and the award in 2009. The members of the Ohio Academy approved the award and the committee in 2010, and the first grant was awarded in 2011. The grant is “designed to promote scholarly research by untenured college and university faculty in the state of Ohio.” It is “intended to help defray the costs of domestic or international travel necessary to conduct research on a significant scholarly project,” especially projects that will result in a first scholarly monograph or journal article.

Citation for Dr. Brandon Downing:
Dr. Brandon Downing is an assistant professor of History at Marietta College. His project title is: “Performative Violence as Political Discourse: Delawares during the Seven Years’ War, 1755-1758.”

Dr. Downing’s project examines Native violence against colonists at the beginning of the Seven Years War in back-country Pennsylvania. He argues that this violence was a deliberate strategy, a series of “calculated decisions” by which the Delaware hoped to gain more control over “their land, security, and diplomacy in a time of great uncertainty.” He challenges the view that such violence was part of an unpredictable and uncontrollable culture clash. Instead, Dr. Downing sees the Delaware as initiating violence as an offensive diplomatic maneuver to communicate rather than a defensive measure to survive.

The JFRG award will help Dr. Downing travel to Philadelphia to do research at the American Philosophical Society’s archives. He approaches the documents prepared to read through the pamphlets, correspondence, and other materials left by elite colonists in order to understand the Delaware perspective. He will use this research to complete a journal article by the end of the year.

Citation for Dr. Casey Stark:
Dr. Casey Stark is an instructor in the History Department at Bowling Green State University. Her project title is: “Vesta and the Emperors of Rome.”

Dr. Stark’s project analyzes the relationship between the goddess Vesta, her cult, and imperial/religious authority in the first four centuries of the Roman Empire. During this period, traditional Roman religious practices began to compete with Christianity and emperors promoted or suppressed pagan cults to advance their personal and political agendas. Dr. Stark traces Vesta cult practices from Augustus to Theodosius, who established Christianity as the official religion and closed pagan temples in 394 A.D. She challenges scholars of this period to pay closer attention to Vesta and her cult: to appreciate Vesta’s role as protector of Rome and mother figure for Romans; to see the significance of the office of the priest of Vesta; and to understand the continual adaptations that Vesta’s cult and followers had to make as their religion was pushed out by Christianity.

The JFRG award will help defray the expenses of Dr. Stark’s trip to the Greek and Latin Reading Room in the graduate library at the University of Wisconsin-Madison, where she will have access to relevant books, serials, and non-circulating reference materials, such as inscription collections. She will use this research to complete her book manuscript by the end of the year.

You’re invited to Settling Ohio: First Nations and Beyond, Feb. 21-22

The first people in Ohio arrived more than 13,000 years ago. These Native Americans overcame rapid changes in climate, eventually building the state’s first homes and becoming the state’s first farmers.

More than 200 years ago a series of events and actions began to shape the state of Ohio we see today—its government, its economy, and its people. Empires clashed and diverse peoples mingled.

Immigrants “settling” Ohio came from the East Coast and Germany, from free people of African descent to slaves crossing the Ohio River, from merchants to Johnny Appleseed. They fought over what freedom in a rapidly expanding republican nation meant, and they left legacies and institutions of enduring significance, including Ohio University.

Hear from historians, scholars and the Chief of the Eastern Shawnee Nation at Settling Ohio: First Nations and Beyond. The conference will take place at Ohio University’s Baker Center on Feb. 21 and 22. It is free and open to the public.

For more information, including a conference program, and to RSVP, go to www.ohio.edu/settling-ohio

Thinking Regionally: Research, Policy, & Practice

Small Cities Conference
May 8-9, 2020 • Muncie, IN

Wide variation in regional economic performance has troubled Americans for more than a generation. Job losses due to international trade and automation, coupled with rapid urbanization, rural population decline, and the divergence in educational attainment between growing and declining places, have had especially dramatic effects on small cities, towns, and rural communities. Scholars and policy makers increasingly recognize the need for regional approaches that address these issues.

Non-metropolitan places regularly encounter public policy challenges spanning multiple communities and jurisdictions. These challenges call for extended scholarly research with a policy or applied focus. Effectively confronting challenges facing rural communities, towns, and smaller cities requires both a better understanding of regional linkages and greater interaction between the academics who study these issues and the policy makers who address them.

Ohio Academy of History 2019 Executive Council Spring Meeting Minutes, March 22, 2019

11:15: Call to order
In attendance: Conn, Vemsani, Mezurek, Hudson, Hedler, Keefer, Robinson, Kern

Approval of Minutes (see below)
Robinson moved, Mezurek second, unanimously accepted.

PRESIDENT’S REPORT
Need to think about how to keep committees staffed, and have fewer of them — For example, should Diss. Committee continue, given shrinkage of History Ph.D.-granting institutions? This should be addressed by the next year’s council.

VICE PRESIDENT’S REPORT
— Seconds President’s idea—it is difficult to find people for committees

PAST PRESIDENT’S REPORT
— None

SECRETARY-TREASURER’S REPORT
— Distributed written report
— Robinson asked about investing money in financial instruments now that we are recognized as a charitable organization by the state.
— Kern said yes.
— Conn inquired about how much we were comfortable in investing Vemsani suggested 25k.
— Kern suggested that we have a separate instrument for the JFRG
— Mezurek cautioned us from making choices before we decide on strategic planning.
— committee agreed. Will pursue this over email when the time comes.

ARCHIVIST’S REPORT
— None

STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS:

1. Conference Committee Report 2019 (Neumann)
Robinson would like a letter to Roscoe Wilson, Chair, Dept. of Humanities and Creative Arts in thanks. They were super-cooperative.

2. Program Committee Report 2019 (Conn)
— came together really well after extending the deadline. Rejected one or two submissions. Papers grouped together mostly nicely.
— Surprised that we did not hear much back from U of Cincinnati or Wright State.

3. Nominating Committee Report (Keefer)
— Keefer reported that all positions are filled. John Weaver suggested that the V-P office should always be unopposed. Committee made a good-faith effort to get multiple candidates, but none of the people they asked agreed to.
— Conn referred the issue of amending the constitution to allow single candidates to New Business.

4. Membership Committee--none

5. Newsletter Committee (Hedler)
— It turned out well, thanks to Shawn Selby and Kim Koloski(OHC). Please take pictures for future newsletters. The process of having a newsletter kick-starts a lot of the essential functions for the Academy.
— Robinson said that we should get more department announcements and blurbs.

6. Proceedings (Robinson)
— Last year’s is out with two articles, we have five submissions pre-conference for this year’s, with chair nominations yet to come, so there is positive growth.

NEW BUSINESS

• Proposed change to Constitution Article IV re: membership for non-tenure track faculty (see below)
— Hedler said demographics are changing. Conn and Vemsani were wary about creating more positions given the difficulty of filling the positions we have, and that NTT/Adjuncts are not excluded right now.
— Robinson moved to table suggestion to Fall meeting, Vemsani seconded. Unanimous.

• Proposed change to 2020 conference schedule (see below)
— Getting started Friday morning rather than afternoon

so high school teachers can have a session devoted to the teaching of historical thinking skills at various grade levels. This would make it easier for them to get here and stay overnight.

— Conn suggests that we try this for one year, on the condition that Rogers and Robinson take it on so that the additional administrative burden doesn’t fall on the group as whole. Another issue is that OSU may charge us based on the number of classrooms.

— Mezurek raised the question of whether this is part of the core mission of the OAH.

Strategic Planning for OAH

— Since the fall meeting, Conn contacted Jackie Barton, who volunteered to do this for $6,500, and Conn strongly recommends her. So we have two questions:

1) Is this a good idea and what do we want to accomplish with it?

2) If we go forward, what are we comfortable paying for this?

— Mezurek added that we also need to commit to follow up on this if we do it.

— Vemsani suggested sending out a survey to the membership. Conn nominated her to head an ad hoc committee to draft a survey which would be distributed at the meeting, and given suggestions, a larger survey will be sent out via email to the membership.

Conn is skeptical about Survey Monkey in being representative of the membership. Robinson feels that some consultation needs to include the larger membership.

Kern made friendly amendment to add Robinson and Keefer to committee.

5 yea, 2 abstentions.

Conn, Regarding the funding of this, we need to set a figure on how much we are willing to spend.

— Kern suggested 10% of savings—$4,000. Vemsani suggested between $2,000-$4,000

— If Barton would not agree to that, Hedler said that OHC has strategic planners that work for historical organizations.

— sense of the committee not to exceed $4,000

— Conn wants recommendation from ad hoc committee on what to do next. We could have an executive committee vote electronically for further steps if any.

Vemsani moved, Robinson second to adjourn.

Adjourned unanimously 12:57
12 pm: Call to Order
Present: Vemsani, Hedler, Taylor, Robinson, Sayre, Rogers, Bednarek, Brooke, Kern, Conn (virtual)

Agenda Approved
Vemsani 1st, Kern 2nd, Unanimous

I. MINUTES
— Bednarek 1st, Brooke 2nd, Unanimous

II. PRESIDENT’S REPORT
— The President has been trying to address issues brought up last year, not much to add.

III. VICE PRESIDENT’S REPORT
— Committee work is going according to the handbook.
— Looking for a location for 2021 meeting, East Ohio is next on rotation, but will gauge interest at other locations.

IV. PAST PRESIDENT’S REPORT
— Not much to add, some unfinished business including strategic planning.
— Suggested perhaps rethinking some of our committees to make them more rational given current circumstances.

V. SECRETARY-TREASURER’S REPORT
— Distributed report. We lost about $1,000 on conference, but low attendance was the main factor.
— Conn asked whether the distant locations for conferences might hurt attendance. Kern agreed in general, although stressed central locations have not always been successful in boosting attendance.
— Robinson inquired if raising fees might be in order, or having various rates by rank or income.
— Kern suggested investing some of the endowment money to help defray annual conference costs.

VI. ARCHIVIST’S REPORT
— No report

VII. AWARD COMMITTEE REPORTS:
1. Dissertation Award (Sayre). Nothing done so far, but a call will be going out.
2. Distinguished Historian Award (Conn)—No report. Bednarek volunteered to help.
3. Distinguished Service Award
— No committee yet
4. Junior Faculty Research Fund (Marinski)
— No report
5. Publication Award (Taylor)
— Committee formed. Should be doing things differently to get the word out and solicit more responses?
— Bednarek suggested sending calls out to Department Chairs around the state.
— Robinson suggested that we should look into alternate sources for reading copies of books (OhioLink, Electronic versions) if publishers are reluctant to send free copies
6. Teaching Award (Heaphy)
— No report

VIII. STANDING COMMITTEE REPORTS:
1. Conference Committee Report 2020 (Brooke)—Distributed report
Trying to get conference spaces for free. Tentative agenda is laid out. Has made arrangements for the luncheon (Faculty Club), reception, breakfast, and hotels. Kern thanked Brooke for all of his work on this over the summer.
2. Program Committee Report 2020 (Cashin)—Report distributed in advance. Has been sent out on H-Net and Department Chairs, OAH Members, and other people. Has even been sent out on Twitter. Brooke said a blast will be sent out to grad students at OSU
3. Nominating Committee Report 2020 (Fluker)—Call for nominations has been made and sent to newsletter
4. Membership Committee (Winkler)—No report
5. Newsletter report [Selby]—Report sent via email. Difficult to get a lot of submissions despite direct contact with individuals and committee chairs. Has tendered his resignation, Bednarek will be taking over. Kern thanked Selby for his exemplary service as editor.

IX. OLD BUSINESS:

1. Adjunct/Temporary Faculty position on the board
   — Bednarek strongly supported this, and perhaps also an adjunct position
   — Kern read a message from Selby advocating for an NTT position on the Committee
   — Taylor suggested that the definition of an Adjunct position might be too narrow, should include people that may not currently be teaching when nominated.
   — Vemsani suggested changing the amendment to include two new positions on the Committee: one for Full-Time NTT and one for Adjuncts. The language of the amendment was changed along these lines and Taylor’s concerns
   — Sayre mentioned that other professional organizations are beginning to expand their tents to include NTTs
   — Bednarek moved, Rogers second. Unanimous. Will be put in Fall Newsletter and voted on at Spring Business Meeting.

2. How to grow membership
   — Bednarek thought change to constitution will help by including a large group of people.
   — Rogers brought up the K-12 constituency, granting CEUs, etc. for a Friday Morning session, when it would be easier to get teachers to attend. Rogers will spearhead trying to get more K-12 involvement. Brooke said scheduling on Friday mornings at OSU is difficult, but he will keep his eye on this and if there are enough bodies lined up by February, he might be able to find space. Robinson said she has made this work in past conferences, and will help.

3. Social Media and OAH
   — Vemsani: We should use Twitter more.
   — Robinson suggested LinkedIn, too.

4. Strategic Planning
   — Vemsani warned that the profession is shrinking, so we should not be under any illusion that this would immediately grow membership. Academia is changing.
   — Main goal: Figure out how can we stay relevant?
   — Bednarek: How should we be organized? Do we still need a dissertation award, for example? Not sure we need to spend $6,500 for this.
   — Hedler mentioned that Rob Colby from Ohio Humanities leads strategic planning sessions for $1,000.
   — Bednarek suggested that Council members ought to meet in January or February to discuss streamlining the organization and defining our core mission.

X. NEW BUSINESS:

Adjourn: Bednarek moved, Robinson seconded, unanimously approved.
Proposed revisions to constitution regarding adding new positions to exec. Council for non-tenure track & adjunct professors, to be voted on at the spring meeting.

Section 1.
The officers shall be a President, Vice President who shall be designated President-Elect, and Secretary Treasurer.

Section 2.
The Vice President and Secretary-Treasurer shall be elected by active members in attendance at the annual meeting from a slate of nominees provided by the Nominating Committee and from other nominations that may be made from the floor.

Section 3.
If the office of President shall become vacant, the Vice President shall thereupon become President. In such a case the President shall serve an additional year. If the office of both the President and Vice President shall become vacant, the most recent living president shall return to the presidency until the next annual meeting.

Section 4.
There shall be an Executive Council consisting of the President, Vice President, retiring President, and Secretary Treasurer, appointed officers and a representative of the Ohio Historical Society, all of whom serve ex-officio, plus seven nine additional elected members, elected for three-year terms, at least two to be elected each year. Rotation of the elected members of the Executive Council shall ensure that each year there are two members from private colleges and universities, two members from state universities, one member from public history, one member from two-year institutions and regional campuses, and one member who has been a social studies teacher from the 7-12 level, one member who at time of election is in a full-time, non-tenure track position, and one member who at time of election has regularly held an adjunct position. The Nominating Committee shall nominate at least two persons for each elected position on the Executive Council. Other candidates may be nominated from the floor. The appointed officers who serve ex-officio with the power to vote are the General Editor and Associate Editor of the Newsletter, the Editor of the Proceedings, and the Archivist. No member of the Executive Council may cast more than one vote.

Section 5.
A majority vote of those present shall be sufficient to elect to any elective office.

Section 6.
The Executive Council has authority to

1) conduct the affairs of the Academy;
2) assist and advise the President;
3) determine the amounts of membership dues;
4) determine the number, size, and function of committees;
5) authorize the President to appoint other officers as it feels necessary to conduct the affairs of the Academy.

Section 7.
The Academy membership at any annual meeting may, by majority vote of those present, overrule the decisions of the Executive Council.

Section 8.
If a vacancy should occur during the three-year term of any elected representative to the Executive Council, the President shall appoint the runner-up nominated for the same position to fulfill the remainder of the term. If the runner-up is unable to serve, the Nominating Committee will select two new candidates from the same type of institution as the original nominees for a special election. The special election may be held by electronic ballot or at the following annual spring meeting. The winner of the special election will serve out the remainder of the original term.

Rationale:
The demographics of the profession is changing. Full-time, non-tenure track and adjunct positions are increasing – becoming up to half the faculty at some institutions of higher learning. These individuals have perspectives and issues that are different from tenured and tenure-track faculty. The purpose of this amendment is to reach out to these individuals and bring their voices to the Executive Council of the Ohio Academy of History.
